Demand for payment: invoice 0004, $500.00 past due

Dear Dana Example,

This letter is a formal demand for payment of invoice 0004, for Menu photo set, issued on 27 August 2026 under our agreement A-0004, signed on 19 August 2026. Payment was due on 11 September 2026. As of the date of this letter, $500.00 remains unpaid.

|---|---|---|
| 27 August 2026 | Invoice 0004: Menu photo set | $900.00 |
| 21 September 2026 | Payment received | -$400.00 |
| | Balance unpaid | $500.00 |

I sent reminders about this invoice on 14 September 2026 and 25 September 2026.

Under the agreement, a late balance carries simple interest at 12% a year starting 5 days after the due date. As of the date of this letter that interest is $4.77, for a total of $504.77.

The agreement is covered by New York's Freelance Isn't Free Act (General Business Law, Article 44-A). Under section 1414 of that law, a hiring party that does not pay a freelance worker in full and on time may be liable for double damages and reasonable attorney's fees.

Please pay $504.77 by 21 October 2026. You can pay by Zelle to robin@harborstudio.example or Venmo to @harbor-studio-demo. Putting Invoice 0004 in the memo helps me match it.

If you believe this amount is wrong, write to me by 21 October 2026 and tell me why. If I have not received payment or a written reply by then, I intend to file a claim in small claims court without further notice.

Sincerely,

Robin Sample
